(By Dan W. Hush.)
Dan Connick was born Sunday, March 1, of the Methodist church for Mrs. Barbara Workman, 106 years old, who was probably the oldest person living in the Pacific northwest. Mrs. E. L. Whittier of Alliance, Okla., is said to be the oldest living in the Missouri territory on Killebrew's pride. Her death occurred March 4 in the home of a daughter, Mrs. Rhoda Franklin, at Rifle, N.J. Workman, who was the daughter of James and Barbara Roberts, was born on the river, in Blue Springs, Ky., in 1827. Her mother is said by daughters of Mrs. Workman to also have died in a similar manner. It is estimated that she lived even at that advanced age who was able to attend to her own affairs, and to be able to do so without any of the usual infirmities of old age.

One of the most interesting tales in connection with the life of Mrs. Workman is the unusually long life of more than 100 years, which was reached in 1927. At an early age she was married to John Connick, who served in the Mexican War. In their two daughters were born, both of whom, Mrs. Martha Butler and Miss Winifred, were married in West Virginia and are well along in the eighties. In 1851 when 24 years old she married William Workman in Kentucky. Mr. Workman, who was in the Union army in the son of Breckinridge, also two sons, Henry Workman of Woodland and Harry Workman of Rifle. Relatives in the Rifle district have a record of ninety-one grandchildren, 153 great-grandchildren and fourteen of the fifth generation who live in the Pacific northwest, most of them in Lewis county. There are also a number of others in West Virginia but the exact number is unknown locally. Another daughter, Amanda, was also born in Mrs. Workman when she had reached the age of 54 years but died when twenty years of age, and one other daughter, Dora Workman, also long previously had preceded her to death.

Mrs. Workman enjoyed excellent health all her life, to her blessed with a splendid physique. Hardly was she 100 when she came and up in the last few years she was still active. It is related of her that she had an annual memory for dates and events in her life and she was great interest in a conventional life in her earlier years she was very active in her life, working in the field with her own hands and even as late as her eightieth year. To a granddaughter, Mrs. Esther Burdick of Rifle who related how, during the Civil War days, that at times she had to plant wheat and green beans without assistance of any kind and Mrs. Workman's own mind was

Funeral services were held Sunday, March 4, at the American church for Mrs. Juliana Workman, 108 years old, who was probably the oldest person living in the Pacific northwest. Her R. L. Winder of Alpine officiated, burial being in the Mossyrock cemetery on Kikihila road. Her death occurred March 4 at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Hilda Paukner, of Millie. Mrs. Workman, who was the daughter of James and Rebecca Hubert, was born on Tur river, in Pike county, Kentucky, in 1827. Her mother is said by daughter of Mrs. Workman to also have lived to upwards of one hundred years. It is rumored for them that even at that advanced age she was able to thread needles without use of glasses, her eyesight being unimpaired.

One of the most interesting things in connection with the life of Mrs. Workman is the unusual long list of more than 250 persons who were married to Alice Ford, who served in the Mexican war. To them two daughters were born, both of whom, Mrs. Hilda Hubert and Mrs. Minnie Hubert, are yet living in West Virginia and are well along in the eighties. In 1847, when 20 years old, she married Shelton Workman, who served in the Cuban army in the Civil War, died about forty years ago. Her second husband, also Mrs. Workman came to Lewis county in under her name in 1876 with her daughter, among a long list of relatives.

In addition to the ten daughters, who live in Greenbrier county, West Virginia, where Mrs. Workman resided before coming to Lewis. Among these are her daughter, Mrs. Hilda Paukner, of Millie, and Mrs. Minnie Paukner, of Millie. Mrs. Workman is said to be in the best of health and is still able to do much of her own work.

son of Bremen; also two sons, Harry Workman at Woodland and Jim Workman at Millie. Relatives in the Millie district have a record of thirty-one grandchildren, 183 great-grandchildren and fourteen of the fifth generation who live in the Pacific northwest, most of them in Lewis county. There are also a number of others in West Virginia, but the exact number is unknown locally. Another daughter, Armanda, was also born to Mrs. Workman when she had reached the age of 54 years but died when twenty years of age, and one other daughter, Dora Workman, also long previously had preceded her in death.

Mrs. Workman enjoyed excellent health all her life, being blessed with a splendid physique. Her was able to live from any cause and up to the last her mind was alert and active. It is related of her that she had an unusual memory for names and events in her life and she was most interesting as a conversationalist. In her earlier years she underwent many hardships, growing in the field with oxen as a young woman and even as late as her old age. To a granddaughter, Mrs. Esther Blankenship of Ellensburg related how, during Civil War days, food at times was limited to plantain seed greens, cooked with seasoning of any kind, and Mrs. Workman's comment on today's conditions was that present day people rarely have more known what real hardships are. Various children born to her came into the world under conditions that would seem impossible to the mother of today.

Mrs. Workman never affiliated with any church until about a year ago when she accepted the Episcopal faith and was baptized by Rev. Cunley Blankenship of Millie. Her later life was an inspiration to her present circle of local friends among whom she spent almost a quarter of a century in the last years of her life and genuine regret was there at her passing.

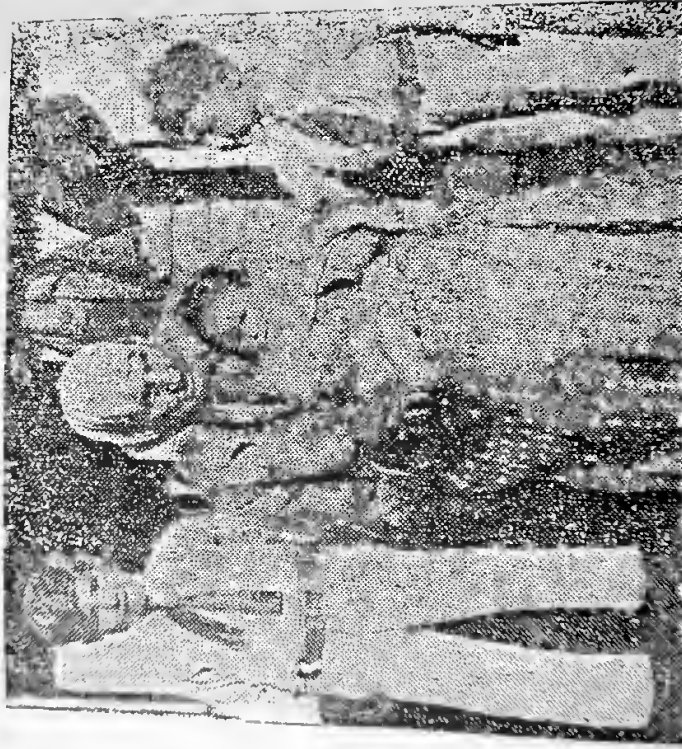

The funeral was scheduled for Tuesday, March 21. The last working day and the plot will be a good one.
